The Frozen Few, 2009-2010 [1]

GREEN forecast for New Year's Day 01/01/10:

With the Fall Series done, we're racing today for New Year's Honors (separate series), in a traditional light breeze from the NW. (Racing is determined by the conditions on the water at the time of sailing, and if there is racing, each skipper decides whether or not to participate.)

FrozenFamily welcomes all to join in sharing pot-luck lunch .... bring enough for you and us ... starting immediately after racing (about 1:30pm) in the EYC Darby Room.
