Five Frozen Few thaw out 1/13/13 to race after Yellow Ducks

Warm weather and a light steady breeze out of the South brought four Frozen Few and a new first-time skipper to the line. Welcome Greg. The day's five races including a duck-hunt clicked by with no mis-haps. Scoring in the fleet for the day was tense between Doug and Wayne, ending tied, with equal points, equal wins on each other, and only finally resolved by the two skippers' finish order in the last race. Also, for the day's top honor, Ray and Jeff were separated by only one point. Some said, "dread curse of the Yellow Ducks". Jonathan filled in for flu-struck Stuart on Frozen race committee .
